

Fairview Cemetery

Directions to Fairview Cemetery and Sketch Map

From the Dougboy Monument in Milesburg, take Turnpike/Mill Street (Route 144) west for 0.7 mile. At Route 150 and the 220 Cloverleaf take Route 150 (N. Eagle Valley Road) north 3 miles to Curtin Hollow Road. Turn left and go 2.8 miles to the Fairview Union Church. The cemetery will be on the right at the intersection of Curtin Hollow Road, Fairview Road and Bullit Run Road. $N40^{\circ}59.830' W77^{\circ}46.905'$

History of Fairview Cemetery

Fairview Church was organized in 1871 as a Messiah Church and met in the school house. In 1889 a charter was drawn up for the Messiah church but about the same time the Eagle Iron Works at Curtin closed. Since many men were employed at the iron works, due to lack of funding a church was not built. Citizens of the area met in 1898 and a resolution was passed to secure a plot of land and build a house of worship convenient to the cemetery. This new building was to be called with Fairview Christian Union as it would serve both the Messiah and United Brethren congregations. In 1901, the Church of Christ was also authorized to use the church building.
