Directions to Trczyulny Cemetery and Sketch Map

From the Dougboy Monument in Milesbugr, take Turnpike/Mill Street (Route 144) west for 0.7 mile. At the intersection of Routes 150 and Alternate 220 cloverleaf, take the 'exit' to Yarnell. This is Moose Run Road. Cemetery entrance is on the right, a few hundred feet from the cloverleaf. $N40^{\circ}56.939' W77^{\circ}47.681'$

History of Trcziyulny Cemetery

Baron Karl Stegner Trcziyulny was exiled from Poland in 1793. He settled in Bellefonte and became a prosperous and respected citizen. He and his wife Katherine (Dorssetnomhn) Trcziyulny are buried in Bellefonte's Union Cemetery. Among his children was Henry P. Trcziyulny, who settled on land near Milesburg. He died in 1878 and was buried on his farm. His grave and those of his wife and son, and perhaps other relatives, are situated on the top of the hill.

When Mrs. Lovina P. Trcziyulny died in 1895, her property went to her daughter, Sarah F. Trcziyulny Gibbs. In the late fall of 1904, Mrs. Gibbs converted the grounds to a cemetery. The Trcziyulny Cemetery includes a plot for Civil War soldiers and one for the poor.
